Tahlia is an associate in the litigation group in our Raleigh office where her practice is focused on insurance defense, trucking and transportation, construction, health care, and business litigation. Prior to joining the firm, she worked in private practice doing civil defense work in all phases of litigation in both federal and state courts. Tahlia also served as Judicial Law Clerk for Chief Justice Beasley of the North Carolina Supreme Court and as an Assistant District Attorney in Wake County. She is very attentive to her cases, always striving to find the most efficient and effective strategy to resolve disputes.
